English Country Dancing

Historical Social Dance with a Modern Flair

Tuesdays & Thursdays, August 10-26
from 7:30-9:00pm

at the 92nd Street Y, 1395 Lexington Ave. at 92nd St.

Six sessions, $75

This delightful dance form is as lively today as it was when it captivated George Washington and Jane Austen. English country dance combines steps that range from the utterly graceful to the exuberantly energetic with intriguing movement patterns and flowing music.

Taught by Country Dance*New York's
senior teacher, Paul Ross

During the six classes, participants will learn:

- Basic English country dance steps, including skip change and waltz.
- Essential styling points including hand and eye contact, hearing the music as a dancer and connecting steps with the musical phrase.
- The variety of forms within this living dance tradition.

The final class will be a dance party to enjoy the skills and dances learned over the first five sessions.

Students are expected to be able to hear a musical beat and to move briskly to it. All ages are welcome; no partners are necessary. Bring comfortable shoes with smooth, clean soles.
